

Especially Arabic countries. They very strict with these things.

Immigration took the pets with them. They afraid about pets. Not about humans. high level

I have listened, but I don't know of this is true or not. Some immigration people warned her family, "I see you again."

My feeling is unsafe because there are about 7 years Leila is here. I am here and two months And she is very strong woman.

I have two years. They give me two years. Visa. Just two years. I went back home so they give me two years. I just come back. My husband is a British citizen.

She's been here 3 years. She is not on the radar.

If you take on the home office, it has to be incredibly accurate. If you mess it up, people stop listening. They won't take you seriously.

I have listened but I don't know if this is

DEPORTATION

Why you go another country and ask asylum?"

Here my feeling is always unsafe.

They knock the door.

Wake up! Wake up! Hurry! Hurry!

Second time when they took the Leila's family, they kept the file for immigration and when Leila came back, detention. Thirteen people's file is still in immigration hold here. They want remove the families.

I can't sleep - last night and the last night.

I miss her all the time laughing and joking.

I tell you. This very unfair. She is here about seven years. After two months she complete seven years. She
